- PPS-PI located promotional material that was posted today in a Facebook group associated with anti-public health order activism advertising a daily "FreedomRally" at the Canadian War Museum in Ottawa.

- PPS-PI located on Facebook, a user who identifies himself as Personal Info. of Grande Prairie, AB. The user posted a live video this afternoon in which he and an associate entered the secured zone on foot and entered Parliament Hill. In the video user Personal Info. expressed an intention to spearhead a peaceful protest, indicated that he would seek to obtain a permit to demonstrate on Parliament Hill, and that he would seek to mobilize other participants at "truck stops" to conduct a march to Parliament this weekend.
  - Content on his account suggests that user Personal Info. was a participant in the Freedom Convoy events earlier this month, and had erected a tent in proximity to Wellington and Metcalfe during the event.
